(Para- 36)

PROBATION AND CONFIRMATION OF EMPLOYEES

Authority The rules governing Probation and Confirmation of PC No.14/95 employees are covered by Standing Order No.4(c) in Dt.14-06-1995 respect of non-executives and Rule No.36 of the R & P Rules and the orders of appointment/promotion in respect of both the executives and non-executives. These rules are summarized below for the information of all the employees :

2.0 General

- 2.1 The period of probation is 6 months in the case of non-executives and 12 months in the case of executives and non-executives promoted to posts in Grade-I.
- 2.2 An employee will be treated as on probation till he/she is confirmed or discharged. The employee is deemed as confirmed in his/her post, only when he/she is intimated to that effect in writing.
- 2.3 During the period of probation, employees are to be watched for their ability, conduct and attendance and monthly progress reports are to be maintained by the concerned Departmental Head or an Officer authorized by him. At the end of probation period, the Departmental Head will send to the Personnel Department a report in the prescribed form, intimating whether the employee has successfully completed the probation and hence could be confirmed, or otherwise.
- 2.4 Any deficiencies noticed in the performance of the employee during the period of probation shall be brought to his notice in writing, thereby affording him/her a chance to over come the same and improve his/her performance.

3.0 Extension of Probation :

- 3.1 If the performance of an employee is not found to be satisfactory inspite of intimating the deficiencies noticed in writing, his/her services will be terminated if he/she was appointed from open market and reverted to the lower post if he/she had been a Company employee appointed/promoted to the present post.

- 3.2 In exceptional cases, the Competent Authority may consider extending the probationary period of 6 months in the case of non-executives and such period as deemed fit in the case of executives, and then decide the question of confirmation of the employee in the present post on the basis of his/her performance during the extended period of probation.
- 3.3 If, at the end of such extended period, the employee's performance is still found to be unsatisfactory, action shall be taken as mentioned in para 3.1 above.

4.0 Effect of Extension of Probation :

- 4.1 An employee whose probation has been extended will lose the seniority by a period equivalent to the period the probation was extended.
- 4.2 The due date of increment will also be postponed to the extent of extension of the probation period. The due date of increment thereafter will be reckoned with reference to the actual date of confirmation.

5.0 Confirmation :

- 5.1 Confirmation on satisfactory completion of probation period :

If an employee on probation has completed the probation period to the satisfaction of the Competent Authority, Orders will be issued confirming the employee in the appointed/promoted post from the date following the date of satisfactory completion of the prescribed period of probation.

- 5.2 Confirmation in cases where probation period is extended :

In case of employee on extended probation has successfully completed the probation during the extended to the satisfactory of the Competent Authority, orders will be issued confirming the employee in the appointed/promoted post from the date of following the date of satisfactory completion of the extended period of probation, with attendant consequences as mentioned in para-4 above

- 6.0 Probation/Confirmation in cases where promotion orders have been issued subsequent to the effective date of promotion.
- 6.1 The procedure to be followed in cases where the promotion orders have been issued on a date subsequent to the effective date of promotion have been circulated vide circular No.BDL/04/C-P&A, dated 21-09-994, the procedure is re-circulated hereunder, incorporating the necessary modifications in the light of the preceding paragraphs.
- 6.2 In all cases where the promotion orders have been issued subsequent to the effective date, the probation will commence from the date of issue of the promotion order.
- 6.3 The probation period will be 6 months and 12 months for non-executives and executives respectively unless extended by a specific order, as mentioned in para.3.
- 6.4 On satisfactory completion of the probation period, orders confirming the employee in the promoted grade will be issued.
- 6.5 In case the probation has been extended, the confirmation order will be issued, provided the employee has completed probation satisfactorily during the extended period. In such cases, the confirmation order will be effective from the date following the date of satisfactory completion of the extended period of probation with attendant consequences as mentioned in paragraph 4 above.
- 6.6 In case the performance of the employee is not found satisfactory by the competent authority even during the extended period of probation, he/she shall be reverted to the post held by him/her prior to the promotion.

2.3 Eligibility Criteria for Promotions in Non-Executive Cadre

2.3.1 The eligibility criteria to appear for the promotion process within the non-executive cadre are detailed below. The candidate needs to meet all the criteria prescribed, in order to be eligible to attend the selection process.

(a) Eligibility Period

- (i) The non-executive should have served for a minimum prescribed period in the existing wage group as on 31st May which will be the cut-off date for reckoning the eligibility period. The prescribed period for the different wage group will be as given at Annexure-1
- (ii) The candidate should have been confirmed in the existing wage group.

(b) Performance Rating

The Performance appraisal system in operation, for non-executives of the company, as modified from time to time, will provide the basis for determination of performance rating. The final performance rating will be an average of the performance rating for the preceding three years. There should be a minimum average performance rating of 5 on a scale of 1 to 10.

(c) Physical Attendance

- (i) Minimum average physical attendance of 205 days per year during the preceding three financial years. However, cases of continued absenteeism from 1st April onwards in the year of consideration for promotion will also be scrutinized to determine the eligibility of the candidate for promotion.
- (ii) For purpose of reckoning the physical attendance, periods of maternity leave will be considered as physical attendance provided the employee has not availed leave without pay or remained absent without leave for a period not exceeding one month during the period of 3 years under consideration. This concession, however, will not be admissible beyond 2 children and to the cases of medical termination of pregnancy.

(d) The eligibility is further subjected to general conditions at para 4.0.

2.4 The Departmental Promotion Committee for selection process wherever necessary will be nominated by the Management.

2.5 Notification for promotion

2.5.1 The HR department will identify the eligible candidates for different wage groups based on the defined eligibility criteria.

2.5.2 The list of eligible candidates will be displayed on the Notice Boards and circulated to all the Divisional Heads/Divisional P&As for information of all concerned.

2.6 Selection process for promotion

2.6.1 Promotions in non-executive cadre except promotions to WG-6 & 11

- (a) In non-executive cadre, the promotions will be based on seniority subject to suitability.
- (b) The selection process for promotions at different levels in the non-executive cadre will consist of two criteria. The criteria and the respective weightages for the different elements are given below:
- (i) Performance Assessment Reports for last three years (80 marks)— The performance rating will be taken as an average of the ratings for the last three years. The marks allotted on this criterion will be as per the following table:-

Average Performance Rating	5	6	7	8	9	10
Marks	45	50	55	60	70	80

Prorated marks will be allotted for fractions in the average performance rating.

- (ii) Physical Attendance (20 marks)--- The marks for this criterion will be as under:

Days of Attendance	Upto 205	206 to 220	221 to 230	231 to 240	241 & above
Marks	0	4	10	16	20

- (c) The qualifying marks for suitability for promotion will be 50%, with relaxations as applicable for SC/ ST candidates.
- (d) The employees found suitable based on the above criteria will be promoted to the next wage group within the career path in non-executive cadre applicable to the individual.

2.6.2 Promotions to WG-6

- (a) Promotions in case of WG-5 to 6 will be based on merit.
- (b) The selection process for promotions will consist of two criteria. The criteria and the respective weightages for the different elements are given below:
- (i) Performance Assessment Reports for last three years (50 marks)--- The performance rating will be taken as an average of the ratings for the prescribed eligibility period for promotion. This average rating should be converted as per the weightage given under “performance assessment” criteria.
- (ii) Written test (50 marks)

Questions in the written test will be from the Question Bank maintained by HR Department. The test will cover the following:

- 1) Technical area of specialization/ trade (40 marks)

2) Standing Orders, Environment, Health & Safety Regulations, etc (10 marks)

(c) The qualifying marks for suitability for promotion will be 50%, with relaxations as applicable for SC/ ST candidates.

2.6.3 Promotion to WG-11

(a) The promotions from WG-10 to 11 will be based on merit.

(b) The selection process for promotions to WG-11 will consist of three criteria. The criteria and the respective weightages for the different elements are given below:

(i) Performance Assessment Reports for last three years (75 marks)— The performance rating will be taken as an average of the ratings for the prescribed eligibility period for promotion. This average rating should be converted as per the weightage given under “performance assessment” criteria.

(ii) Physical Attendance (10 marks)--- The marks for this criterion will be as under:

Days of Attendance	Upto 205	206 to 220	221 to 230	231 to 240	241 & above
Marks	0	2	5	8	10

(iii) Assessment by the DPC (15 marks)---

Marks will be allocated by the DPC on any relevant additional qualification obtained, any special achievement related to work, any professional awards received or any other work related criteria it deems appropriate.

(c) The qualifying marks for suitability for promotion will be 50%, with relaxations as applicable for SC/ ST candidates.

2.7 Approval of Selection List for Promotion

The HR Department will analyze the rating sheet with regards to statutory guidelines on reservations for SC, ST candidates and will put up the selection list for approval of the competent authority.

2.8 Promotion Orders-Effective date

2.8.1 The effective date of promotion for non-executives is 1st June of the year of DPC. In case of DPCs are conducted after the effective date due to administrative reasons, promotions shall be given notionally from 1st June of respective DPC year and the financial benefit will be also given with effect from 1st June.

2.9 Recategorization

2.9.1 An employee who wishes to be re-categorized into a different trade, may be permitted to do so at the time of his/her promotion subject to the following conditions—

- (a) He/she must possess the requisite educational qualifications
- (b) The divisional/unit/functional head to which the employee belongs must confirm the requirement of the re-categorized post
- (c) The divisional/ unit/functional head to which the employee belongs must recommend the employee who is seeking re-categorization
- (d) He/she should pass a practical test/written test specifically conducted by the DPC for re-categorization, before the assessment.
- (e) The qualifying & maximum marks for written test or practical test will be as prescribed for recruitment.
- (f) Re-categorization is permissible only once in course of the employee's service.
- (g) Helpers in WG-0 and WG-1 are not eligible for re-categorization.

3 CAREER TRANSITION FOR NON-EXECUTIVES TO EXECUTIVE CADRE

3.1 Promotions from Non-Executive Cadre to Gr-I

3.1.1 There will be two streams for promotions from non-executive cadre to Gr-I:

- (a) Stream-1: All non-executives in WG- 5 and above with minimum 3 years service in WG–5 with professional qualification prescribed for recruitment in executive cadre (technical/ non-technical), as defined by Recruitment Rules will be eligible for promotion under this stream. For such promotions, the relevant technical & professional qualifications possessed/ acquired from recognized Universities/ Institutions either as a regular course or a part time course through distance education program or correspondence course or any other equivalent examination recognized by the government, will be valid. All eligible candidates will be allowed to compete.
- (b) Stream-2: All non-executives in WG- 9 and above with minimum 3 years service in WG–9 will be eligible for promotion under this stream. While notifying the vacancies, applications will be called from the eligible employees for scrutiny. From among the applicants candidates will be called in ratio of 1:5 to the number of vacancies for the selection process in order of seniority.

3.1.2 The cut-off date and the effective date for reckoning promotion will be 31st May and 1st September respectively, in the year in which promotions are agreed to be effected.

3.2 Vacancies for Promotions from Non-Executive Cadre to Gr-I

- 3.2.1 The number of vacancies for direct recruitment of MTs will be 45% of the total vacancies identified for Gr-I & II
- 3.2.2 Balance 55% will be filled by promotion of Non-Executives to Gr-1. This 55% will be allocated to different categories of Non-Executives as given at Para 3.2.3 & 3.2.4 below.
- 3.2.3 The number of vacancies for Stream-1 will be 15% of the total vacancies identified for Gr-I & II out of which 13% will be for technical area including persons with M.Sc qualification and the balance 2% will be for non-technical area, viz. HR, Finance & IMM.
- 3.2.4 The number of vacancies for Stream-2 will be 40% of the total vacancies identified for Gr-I & II. The 40% vacancies are allocated as under:
- (a) 20% of the total vacancies will be filled by candidates possessing the qualifications prescribed for recruitment in WG-4 in technical discipline including chemists.
 - (b) 16% of the total vacancies will be filled by candidates possessing the qualifications prescribed for recruitment in WG-2 in technical discipline
 - (c) Remaining 4% of the total vacancies will be filled by candidates in the disciplines of HR (1%), Finance (1%), IMM- non technical (1%) & Others (1%).
 - (d) If any vacancy remains unfilled, it will be allocated to technical disciplines in Stream-1.

3.3 Other Eligibility Criteria for Promotion to Gr-I

The Non-Executives should be fulfilling following eligibility criteria also in addition to the criteria given at Para 3.1 above.

3.3.1 Performance Rating

The Performance appraisal system in operation, for non-executives of the company, as modified from time to time, will provide the basis for determination of performance rating. The final performance rating will be an average of the performance rating for the last 3 of years. For a non-executive to be considered for promotion, he/she should have a minimum average performance rating of 5 on a scale of 1 to10.

3.3.2 Physical Attendance

- (a) Minimum average physical attendance of 205 days in a year during the preceding 3 financial years. However, cases of continued absenteeism from 1st April onwards in the year of consideration for promotion will also be scrutinized to determine the eligibility of the candidate for promotion.
- (b) For purpose of reckoning the physical attendance, periods of maternity leave will be considered as physical attendance provided the employee has not availed leave without pay or remained absent without leave for a period not exceeding one month during the period of 3 years under consideration. This concession, however, will not be admissible beyond 2 children and to the cases of medical termination of pregnancy.

3.3.3 Reckoning of Candidates for appearing for the process of selection in the 1:5 ratio

It is generally observed that mostly same candidates appear in the selection process in Stream-2 when they are called in the ratio of 1:5. A need is felt to bring in new candidates into the competition. Hence, candidates who have already attempted the test earlier for more than 3 times for promotion to Grade-I will not be reckoned against 1: 5 ration but will be allowed to appear for whole process of selection. Such number of employees will be in addition to employees that will be allowed to appear for selection process in the ration of 1:5 in order of seniority from amongst the applicants for such promotion. Non-reckoning of any candidate in the ratio of 1:5 does not imply any bar for his selection. The selection will be purely based on merit.

3.4 Formation of Departmental Promotion Committee:

3.4.1 The Departmental Promotion Committee for selection process will be nominated by Management.

3.5 Notification for promotion

3.5.1 The HR department will issue an internal circular inviting applications from the eligible candidates for promotion to Gr-I

3.5.2 The circular will indicate discipline wise and unit wise number of vacancies with applicable reservations.

3.6 Identification of candidates for appearing in the Selection process for Promotion

3.6.1 The HR department will scrutinize the applications received with respect to their eligibility for promotion.

3.6.2 Stream-1- In case of non-executives falling in Stream-1, all the eligible candidates will be called for the selection process.

3.6.3 Stream-2- In case of non-executives falling in Stream-2, the number of eligible candidates called for the selection process will be 5 times the number of vacancies announced.

4.0 Exclusions/Disqualification from Promotion

4.1 The cases of employees against whom disciplinary proceedings/criminal prosecutions on serious allegations of corruption, bribery or similar grave misconduct including moral turpitude, fraud etc., are pending but are otherwise eligible for consideration for promotion shall also be considered by DPC along with all other cases. The recommendations of the DPC, including 'unfit for promotion' will be kept in 'Sealed Cover'. The guidelines on Sealed Cover Procedure as prescribed by the Government (based on DOPT Lr. No. 22011/4/91-Estt(A), dated 14-09-1992) will be followed.

4.2 The promotions in respect of employees who were awarded with punishments on conclusion of disciplinary proceedings will be regulated as per PC No. 03/2005 dated 18.01.2005.

5.0 General Induction levels are WG:0 for helper, WG:2 for ITI equivalents, WG:4 for Diploma Equivalents, these recruitment being the prerogative of Management, the qualification requirement for induction and level of induction will be decided by Management as deemed fit while the Wage Structure will be as per MOS dated 20 Jul 2010.
